Factsheet for all adults (18+) staying as part of tabir, including sumeniata parents.

1. Use the book in kanselaria to sign in and out when leaving tabir boundaries, even if only going down to the Hospoda. Gates to Tarasivka are kept locked as an added security measure therefore unlocking must be requested. We request that going out of tabir is kept to an absolute minimum and only if essential.
2. All adults will be required to do at least one stiyka shift, hence recommend nichna tysha 1.30am and vctavanya 7am. Sumeniata parents may volunteer to do a stiyka if another sumeniata parent looks after their child.
3. All adults are expected to attend molytva morning and evening.
4. All adults will be required to help serve at mealtimes and help with the washing up – rotas will be organised.
5. Sumeniata parents are responsible for cherhuvannya in the sumeniata areas – proqramova sumeniat to organise rotas.
6. Sumeniata parents responsible for sink duties at mealtimes – rotas will be organised.
7. During tabir only one parent is the official carer of a sumeniatko and siblings. If the other parent wishes to attend tabir they must fill in the appropriate adult anketa, report to named person in charge of a particular area e.g. proqramoviy, oboznyi, holova kukhni and sleep in the tent provided and not in barak sumeniat.
8. No furniture is to be removed from any of the rooms. If there is a problem please speak to persons on registration.
9. Tabir does not provide accommodation for couples, not even for weekenders. All accommodation is pre-designated on either the male or female areas of tabir. If people bring their own tents they should be placed in the appropriate areas.
10. Weekend accommodation available by prior arrangement only for adults volunteering their services to tabir.
11. Alcohol may only be consumed in the hall at designated times. Smoking is allowed in the designated area. Smoking and drinking in tents is strictly prohibited.

Thank you for your cooperation
